01 — WHO WE ARE

About MG ORBIS

A premium apparel export trading and sourcing company built for global fashion brands, wholesalers, retailers, and private-label businesses.

MG ORBIS is a premium apparel export trading and sourcing company, connecting global fashion brands, wholesalers, retailers, and private-label businesses with a trusted network of Indian apparel manufacturing partners. From first sample to final shipment, every programme is managed by a single team — giving buyers one point of contact across sourcing, production coordination, and logistics.

We work with carefully selected manufacturing partners, combining premium fabrics, skilled craftsmanship, and strict quality control to deliver apparel that meets international standards. Our sourcing network is structured for both focused private-label runs and large-volume bulk export, without compromising on consistency.
